

Directions to Le Reposoir:

Have a look on Google Maps (and StreetView) ... Le Reposoir is not far from Cluses which is on the A40 motorway from Geneva to Chamonix. Leave the A40 (Autoroute Blanche) at junction 18 at Cluses ...

Having left the motorway (and paid a toll of 2 Euros) you immediately are presented with a roundabout (The McDonald's roundabout – named for obvious reasons!) ... take the first exit on that roundabout signposted to Le Reposoir.

Follow the signposts to Le Reposoir on the D4 road up the mountain.

I will give you my SatNav with our house recorded as a favourite.

It takes 15-20 mins from the McDonald Roundabout to the centre of Le Reposoir village.

On entering the village do not take the first left – but carry on into the centre of the village (a large hotel on the right called “Le Chartreuse” which takes its name from the convent that is in the village).

On the left, opposite the hotel is a bridge into the village square - a church, a school and the Mairie (Town Hall).

Go over the bridge into the village square and pass the Mairie keeping the Mairie on your left and the church on your right.

This road leads to the convent (Chartreuse) ... about 400 yards away.

Our house is behind the convent (Chartreuse) in Le Reposoir.

The road to the Chartreuse takes a sharp right bend of 90 degrees (near a very high stone wall that surrounds the Chartreuse) ... do not turn right – but instead keep going straight down the outside of the stone wall sign post to the “Reblochon Farm”. (Reblochon is a type of cheese).

Follow the (very narrow) road next to the stone wall for about 200 yards and past the end of the wall – after another 100 yards – turn right over a narrow bridge – this leads to a track that leads to the farm and just before the farm is our house.

Our address in Le Reposoir is
