December 2010

Yet another year has gone by ...

... Janice's mother celebrated her 90th birthday in February and she took the entire extended family out for a celebratory meal.

(Jon too had a big "0" birthday as he reached 30)

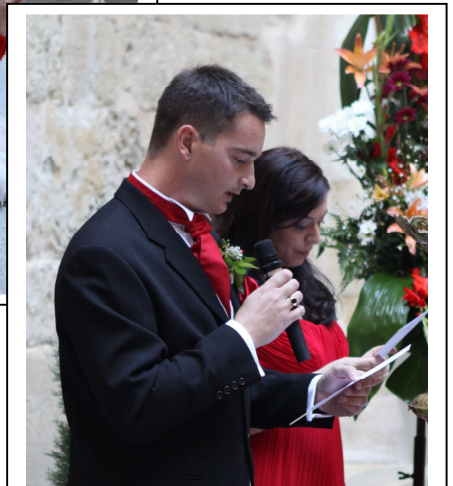

... but one of the highlights of the year has to be Jon and Blanca's wedding in Blanca's home town of Salamanca, Spain.

The setting for the wedding ceremony and evening entertainment was unbelievably beautiful in "Castillo de Buen Amor". It was very special to have the whole family including Paul, Claire, Chris, Ali and Dani staying together in the castle.

Amelia and Isobelle as flower girls ...

... but the wedding was only one highlight of the year as Eve produced another... giving birth to our third grand daughter: "Lucy Marie"...

Tim & Helena (Blanca's Sister)
Taking part in the ceremony

... Rich and Lucy

... Amelia, Eve and Lucy

The third big event of the year was Janice's retirement (or is it change of career as she becomes a professional home maker?)

Tim continues to enjoy archaeology and Jo is nearing completion of her social work degree.

Until next year, we wish you all a very merry Christmas and a happy and prosperous New Year.

Mike, Janice and Family.
